"If it dies, it produces much fruit

John 12:24

*St. Augustine
(354-430)
Father and Doctor*

How many deaths did that one man purchase by His death, for, if He had not died, the grain of wheat would not be multiplied? You heard His words when He drew near His passion, that is when He was drawing near to our redemption: "Unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains alone but if it dies, it bears much fruit." On the Cross He carried out a vast transaction, there, the purse of our price was unfastened and, when His side was opened by the lance of the soldier, there streamed the price for the redemption of the whole earth!
