DIVINE MERCY MOMENT.

If souls would out themselves completely in My care, I Myself would undertake the task of sanctifying them, and I would lavish even greater graces on them. There are souls who thwart My efforts, but I have not given up on them; as often as they turn to Me, I hurry to their aid, shielding them with My mercy, and I give them the first place in My compassionate heart (Diary, 1682).

We welcome the newly baptized, Asher Skyler Gordon, son of Angello and Delvyann into our St. Clement Parish Family.

SAFE ENVIRONMENT: PROTECTING GOD'S CHILDREN AWARENESS TRAINING

All parishioners of St. Clement Parish (18 years of age or older), who wish to volunteer within the parish, must enroll in the Diocesan mandated Protecting God's Children Awareness Program. IN OBSERVANCE OF LABOR DAY, THE PARISH OFFICE WILL BE CLOSED MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 2ND

(PLEASE NOTE: Mass on Labor Day is at 9:00 a.m.)

There were always men and women who produced certain goods for society at large. But not until the Industrial Revolution of the 19th century was there any vast concentration of laborers, a real "working class," that toiled in plants and factories. Eventually, as more and more people worked together, they organized to improve working conditions, to bargain for wages, and to enhance the status of working men and women. One way to do this was to establish a holiday at which time all of American society might acknowledge the contributions labor was making in life in the United States. We celebrate the spirit of the American work force on the first Monday in September.
